

It is time to put a stop to the greed of the telephone companies along with the cable companies. I pay $20.00 a month for the internet now and these companies won't be satisfied until they take my food and gas money away also. Verizon is the first to cry when they think someone else is going to be competition for them. My pay cannot keep up with their increases. Don't let them take the net away from the average guy.